that those united in marriage
may remain faithful to each other,
and that every bond of friendship and affection
may be blessed, confirmed and perfected through Jesus Christ, in the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

Gospel Reading

The question about divorce

<sup>2</sup>Some Pharisees came, and to test Jesus they asked, 'Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?' <sup>3</sup>He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' <sup>4</sup>They said, 'Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.' <sup>5</sup>But Jesus said to them, 'Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. <sup>6</sup>But from the beginning of creation, "God made them male and female. <sup>7</sup>For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, <sup>8</sup>and the two shall become one flesh." So they are no longer two, but one flesh. <sup>9</sup>Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.' <sup>10</sup>Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. <sup>11</sup>He said to them, 'Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; <sup>12</sup>and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.'

Jesus and the children

<sup>13</sup>People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. <sup>14</sup>But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. <sup>15</sup>Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it. <sup>16</sup>And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Mark 10.2-16 NRSV<sup>1</sup>

Comments and Questions

For Mark's first readers, especially Jewish ones, it was important that what Jesus taught was consonant with the Torah delivered through Moses.

Do the Pharisees want to hear what Jesus says, or merely to draw him into an argument?

Jesus doesn't say that Moses was wrong, but that divorce was a concession to human weakness (v.5), cf Deuteronomy 24.1.

Think of some arguments in favour of divorce, and then some against it. Can you think of any ways that might help people to avoid resorting to divorce?

Why does Jesus suggest that adults should receive 'the kingdom of God' like a little child (v.15)?

Closing Prayer

God of community,
in your threefold wisdom you have ordained
that it is not good for us to be alone.
Restore to the children of Adam and Eve
the holiness and harmony
